

March 11, 2012

Intro: We talked at length about the relational nature of the new birth in general and of faith specifically.

1. What is vain jangling (I Tim. 1:2-7)?
2. What is it the direct result of?
3. Do you need to monitor your confession so that you only say things which are consistent with faith?
4. SHOULD your confession be in accordance with God's Word?
5. If I monitor and alter my own confession who is in control?
6. Why is focusing on your confession the WRONG focus?
7. What really needs to change? Why?
8. How do I get to the place where that change is made in me?
9. CAN you meditate on and study God's Word and walk away without genuine, non-hypocritical faith? If so, why?
10. What does the word 'looking' in Heb. 12:2 mean by way of implication?
11. Why is that significant?